CITY NEWS.

-The first snow of the season. -Court Square was deserted last

The convenience of street cars will be properly appreciated this morning.

-The Century for December, and Modern Idols, by Thorne, are just in at Mansford's. -A marriage license was issued yesterday to Orange Perry and Miss Elisa Allen, colored. -There are thirty-eight prisoners in the County Jail, twenty-seven of whom have yet to be tried.

damage to the roof of the Christian Brothers' College yesterday morning. -The last charity ball was a great success. The one to come off next month bids fair to give still greater re-lief to the destitute of the city.

—Thesale of seats for Thatcher, Prim-rose and West's Minstrels begins to-day at Mulfords. They give but two performances here, Monday and Tues-

—P. G. Ault, the embezzler from Waukesha. Wis., seems to be playing in good luck. Chief Davis yesterday received a telegram from the Waukeeha authorities that friends of the prisoner who is held here had settled his defalcation and he would not be sent for. The only charge now re-maining against him is stealing two towels from Frank Sturla.

-Greek George, the wrestler, called at the APPRAL office last night and de-clared his intention of leaving his $50 forfeit on deposit, to await all comers. He is anxious to wrestle any man in Tennessee, catch as catch can, and will give up his $50 if he fails to throw his antagonist four times in one hour. He is also anxious to meet anybody in a sparring match, four rounds or fight to a finish, Marquis of Queens-bury rules, for $50 or $100 a side, the match to take place two weeks from the date of signing articles. The money is deposited in this office.

JOSEPH LOCKE died at No. 92 Court He was the son of one of the old time Mayors of Memphis, and brother to Mr. Charles G. Locke, business manager of the Ledger. Joe Locke was born and reared in this city, served aliantly through the late war in the Confederate service, receiving five wounds, and at the age of 19 returned Memph's at the close of the con-acquaintances. He served faithfull through the terrible yellow fever epi-demics of 1878 and 1879, attending the sick and burying the dead. For some time he had been in declining health, and naturally became despondent notwithstanding his light and cheerful disposition. Last Monday he became unconscious, and remained so up to the time of his death. During his ill-ness he was attended by his mother, brother, friends and prominent physiciens but nothing could be done His sister, Mrs. Andress, and her little daughter, to whom Joe Locke was much attached arrived in time rom Illinois to witness bis dying moments The funera o the lamented deceased will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow (Sunday) from the residence No. 92 Court street. Mr. Locke was a Mason an Odd-Fellow, a Knight of Honor and a member of the Knights and Ladies of Honor.

SOCIETY.

Reception as Mrs. Goodman's.

A brilliant reception was given at the residence of Mrs Walter A. Goodman last night. The occasion was the debut into society of her lovely young daughter, Miss Norman, and in honor of the Misses Woolfelk of Letaington, Ky., and Miss Nona Winter, of Huntsville, Als. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, for it snowed relentlessly, it seemed, by the number of participants, that nearly every invitation had been taken advantage of by society people. Reception at Mrs. Goodman's, society people.

The decorations were tasteful and beautiful; festoons of evergreens ornamented the hall and gray moss hung from the ceiling and chandeliers.

The dresses of the ladies were exquisitely handsome and in keeping with the beauty of those who were

A feature of the evening was the great number of debutantes who are rapidly being initiated into the gay-eties of "acciety."

Refreshments were served at small tables, about twenty people being accommodated at one time.

The music, which was elegant, was furnished by the Croce Bros. string

Mrs. Goodman and her daughter cannot help but feel gratified with the success of their entertainment, for the unanimous voice of all present was that it was one of the most enjoyable social events of the season.
